

MONICA RUBIO (Colourist - Film Maker)
www.monicarubio.com

Monica has breathed beauty and life in a range of projects, from feature films, music videos to art installations, many of which have won awards at festivals around the world. She collaborates closely with film-makers to ensure their vision stays as true as possible to their original dream. Originally from Colombia, Monica has worked in many countries from the UK and Europe to South America. She is proficient on numerous systems including Davinci, Baselight and Scratch. She has her own studio in Brixton, as well as working in other setups where jobs take her.

Monica is also an all round film-maker, having produced, directed and edited many short films, documentaries and animated films for broadcast and cinema.
