

MARCELA JIMENEZ (Arts Manager and Researcher)

Marcela has over ten years' experience working in the cultural sector in her native Colombia, as well as in the UK. As an arts manager, she has a significant experience in the development and production of projects for cultural institutions, galleries, art collectors and independent artists. These projects include design and implementation of exhibition programmes, fundraising, private art consultancy, touring exhibitions, art exhibit management at international art fairs and coordinating creative processes. Her research work focuses on museums and cultural diplomacy and corporate art collections. She holds a MA in Creative and Cultural Industries from London Metropolitan University.